A CORRESPONDENT Writing to Ithe Singapore Free Press, with reference to the departure of Chief Justice Sir E. L. PROFESSOR Baldwin's Butterfly Company 17th Jan., and may be expected here gave another of their entertainments in the Theatre Royal last night. There was again a large audience who seemed delighted with the whole performance. Miss Delroy sang and danced as charmingly as ever, Miss Constance was encored for her clever skipping rope dancing, Me Bell was inimitably funny with his negro witticiems, and Mrs Baldwin's photograph impersonations were even more successful than on the opening night. The same remark applies with equal force to her clairvoyancy. She gave questions and answers with more clearness and rapidity than on Thursday evening ; generully to the satisfaction of the audience. Professor Baldwin varied his spiritualistic business, making it even more interesting and certainly more mysterious than before. The next performance by the Company will be on Monday evening, when an entire change of programme is promised.

Tern names have been published in Japan of thirteen members of the Japanese House f Representatives who are baptised Obristians. A Japanese contemporary remarke that if that average were preserved throughout Japan, it would signify that Ohristianity had gained over a million and a half converts. From another point of view the figures are even more interesting. It has always been claimed that although Christian propagandism makes some progress among the lower order of Japanese, it has no success with the upper. The inference suggested by the number of Christian in the House of Representatives contradicts this theory, for it shows that whereas the percentage of Christians throughout Japan does not exceed twenty. seven in every ten thousand, the coire sponding percentage in the class from which members of the House of Representatives are drawn is four hundred and

FRAGRANT WATERS' MURMUR hat it is now believed, in the absence of contary advices, Sir Francis Fleming will return to the Colony to resume his duties an Colonial Secretary. That, under present conditions, his return will be a decided gain to the administration, as his tact is generally admitted and his experience can be denominated at leist a known quantity. That, as usual, many officials will be granted leave in the spring, and numerous chauges will be made.

That the Colonial Treasurer goes Home for a for months, and Commander Hastings is speken of as his locum tenens.

That the gallant Commander seems to be ro. garded as open for and equal to any work that presents itself, from the superintendency of the Water Police to the command of the Channel Fleet.

That it seems almost unfair for the Colonial Office to leave an official like Mr Hastings picking up the crumbs in this fashion. That the system on which appointments are made at the Colonial Office is fat from faulilees, and it often entails hardship on thou appointed as well as uneless expense upon the Colonies.

hat one instance looks like a case in point. viz, the appointment of an outsider to the Governorship of the Gaol, instead of an officer who knows something of the Chinese or minal.

That I have never been in favour of fooding the Departments with inexperienced onders, but at the same time a knowledge of Chinese and their language is surely one of the prime necessities for the proper regulation of a prison filled by

That this tendency of the Colonia Office to provide for pressing applicants at Home, or to listen to those in the Service who claim comideration on the ground of seniority irrespective of special qualifications, has done much to lessen the efficiency of administration in our Crown Colonies.

That possibly the insure idea hald at Home, of building a vast prison for South China here in Hongkong, at the the expense of this already greatlyburdened Colony, may have had some-Gao Superintendent who is presumably Little Boy-I guess it's cause they like to iggorant of local conditions.

bring fada and mistaken matrons with him. That the officer now testing here of Survejor General appears to be menfully atheling the legacy of arrests left to him and I am told on all aides that work is now dose heartily, promptly and thoroughly by every member of the P. W. D. staff. That this seems to be the opinion held the local architects and stry stope, as her they sent in a strong recommendstion to the Government ataly, to the effect that Mr Cooper should be selected for the permanent appointment.

That the question put two or three years ago, 'Who is Mr Cooper ! appears to be obtaining a more entlefactory answer these days than it did them.

That the unwise sitempt to sandwich the Smitary Surreyor between the Government (alian the Hon. J. M. Price) and the Smitary Board was at that time the cure of much friction les and work more than they were wont defined with sufficient clearness. That the question raised about the muddy mier supply has at last been cleared up, if the water itself haen't.

That the experts now assure us, there's nothing like chalk, or lime; and, after the manner of the professional henwife, they tell us that we must mix the water sketch of the young man who was to have with a certain amount of lime, and thereby assimilate the needed chalk.

That it is comforting to know from Mr Humphreys that the water (plus lime) is all right.

That the Director of the Observatory states in a rainfall report. Bain is a very variable and uncertain element, and no forecast for any season can be made in idvance.

That no forecast of anything can be given phlese made 'in advance.'

The what the public complain of about the Observatory is that but few forecasts in advance,' or in any other way, are

Hongkong, to have two entire battalions on the ground; besides all the other branches which, by the way, are now fairly represented.

That the gallant Argyli and Sutherlands then made their last public diaplay here and a fine body of men they looked.

That their Colonel was unfortunately not in command, being then on the sick list, though he is now almost himself again. That, as their Parson sold the Corps the other day, Hongkong will not forget the kilted lads wherever they may go.

That I have heard of a fee boing charged by Government for measuring lighters addition to the tax placed on these barges, and perhaps you can tell under what clause this power is given. That the Legislative Council meets

A YOUNG man in Auburn, Blaine, who applied to the City Clerk for a marriage license; gave his age as twenty years, and was informed that on account of his youthfulness he would have to secure his parents written consent before a cortificate could be issued. He went out, and soon returned with a brief but pointed document : This is to certify that my son John has my consent to marry Ann or any other woman. He is young in years, but old in

If I to send in their Bills of Lading for counterhadn't been here to protect you, he grum-blad, crawling back into bed, 'you would have frightoned yourself to death.'

PLANETARY INFLUENCE. Mercury and the moon are generally considered to affect the mind and disposi tion, yet it will be found all the planets influence them for good or ill. Venus especially must be considered in this important matter. Venus is an earthy planet and does not affect the higher qualities, unless Herschell and Neptune are beneficially configurated with her, when the spiritual and idealistic faculties will greatly influence the earthly life, and her earthy tendencies will be divorted into the higher ones. Venus is the planet of love; those who have her well aspected have a lovable disposition and tastes for the fine arts. Females having Venus so aspected will have good taste; their choice and combination of colours will be good and tasteful they will be fond of music, singing, and dancing (the latter especially), their dispo-sition being a merry, volatile one; they do not appear to know the value of money, the word thrift being unknown to them .- The Astrologer's Magazine.

HE WAS TOO GOOD FOR THIS

WORLD. Your Honor, said a prosecuting attorney in ah Alabama Backwoods Court, the prisomer at the bar is charged with killing one of the most exemplary citizens of this county. Andrew D. Bogson, your Honor, was in every respect a model man. He was a beloved member of the church, and was never known to be guilty of an unchristian act. Why, your Honor, he was never known to bet on horses, play poker, drink whisky, or use tobacco. Ho-'Hold on a minute,' the Judge broke in, you say be didn't bet on horses?' 'That's what I say, your Honor.' And he didn't play poker? Never was known to play THE KOWLOON LAND AND BUILD a game, And he never drank liquor? Never drank a drop, your Honor. And he didn't chew tobacco? Never took a chew in his life.' 'Well, then,' said the Judge, leaning back, with a sigh, 'I don't see what he wanted to live for. There wa'n't anything in life for him, and I don't see why he sin't about as well off dead as alive. Release the prisoner, Mr Sheriff, and call the next case.

IT RECALLS THE BLIZZ IRD. In March, 1888, the great blizzard in America almost extinguished the city of New York. The like of it was never before seen. The snow completely stopped all local triffic. Not a horse or a wheel could move. All the telegraph lines leading into the city were prostrated, and for two or three days the people of Boston and New York communicated with each other by way of London by means of the Atlantic cables. Thus messages intended for persons three bundred miles distant were sent six thousand miles, crossing the ccean thice. An incident which recalls this experience to the writer's mind happened a short time ago here in England. Suppose we let the gentleman interested tell his own story.

He says: 'I have suffered more or less from indigestion and dyspepsia all my life. I had a badtaste in the month, pain after ealing, a poor appetite, and sour stomach, and my month constantly filled with a watery fluid. No matter what I ats, however light, it disagreed with me and gave me pain, I had fulness of the chest, and pain at my side, with a miserable low, doll feeling. From time to time I consulted a doctor who gave me medicines, but they did very little good. The doctor said that the conting of my stomach was disordered, and the mucous membrane was inflamed. In 1877 I received a pamphlet from New York telling of a medicine called Mother Seigel's Cumtive Syrap, and of the extraordinary oures it had effected, so I procured a supply, and after taking the first I felt better, and by the time I had taken four bottles more, I was completely sured, and have been in good health, as regards Chateau Lamorere, Mouthe indigation, ever since. Having studied the practice of herbs for many years, I was in the habit of treating peoand was frequently consulted by people in Chican Leville, Batton the district so after my remarkable cure; I was so impressed with the merits of Syrap, that I procured a large supply of Chatesu Calon Segur, St. | 26.50 the medicine, and recommend it to all who were suffering, and people came from far and near for it. I may mention that on a Sunday my house was beselved by miners from Coal Pit Heath, and others from a distance. Un every hand I heard nothing but the loudest praise and of the cures it effected, and the fame of this medicine was spread throughout the West of Eng. land with no other advertising than one party telling another of the benefit they had derived from this wonderful medicine. I wish every one to know of this, and if by publishing this statement it will help others who may be suffering as I was, it will afford me pleasure." The letter from which the foregoing is an extract is signed Moses Godwin, Old Sodbury (Sodbury), Glos, and is dated headquarters; for the sale of Mother Saigel's Syrap is universally known to be in Lendou, by a strange chance Mr Godwin's first beformation concerning it come from America, three thousand miles away, which recalls the incident of the American blizzard above narrated, and also shows that the fewe and usefulness of this medicine extends to all civilised countries. Mr Benjamin Edgerton, grocer and pro-vison dealer, Plat Lane, Whixell, Whitchurch, Salep, says: 'While living with Mr Roberts, Fens Wood Farm, I first began to feel a dull heavy weight at my side, and poticed a bad taste in the mouth with foul stomach and uncomfortable feeling after sating. I had no appetite, and when I sat down to the table I could not touch the food. I had a good deal of pain and noise in the head, and could not sleep for it. I was not fit for heavy work, and could only do light jobs about the farm.

After cutting a hedge I would go quite faint, and had to sit down, and felt so much depressed I could have cried. Having always been such a strong man I took it hadly to be reduced to such a weak state. I look all kinds of physic and saw a doctor, but his medicine only eased me for a bit, and then I wes worse than before. I went on in this way for over a year, when a servant that came to live at hir This Article, which has been reprinted Roberts told me of a medicine called Mother from the China Review, contains one of the Seigel's Syrup.
